SANDY'S DAILY MESSAGE

Day 12 and everyone who has been attending school has now departed for the Easter holidays. Very definitely a strange one this year!

Those of you on parentmail will receive this update and a host of different activities (sent separately due to the size of the file attachments).

For those of you who have specifically requested hard copies, Sue R will be posting these out tomorrow, so they should be with you early next week.

Our daily update will resume when we return to school after the break, but do remember, our mobile number is available for emergencies: 07436 364907.

ACTIVITIES / LINKS THAT MIGHT BE HELPFUL

In addition to the activities being sent home, here are a few more links which could prove useful.

Laura says this site has some wonderful Gruffalo illustrations which demonstrate social distancing:

"Easy Peasy" are also offering their resources free until 31st May. If you register, they send a short clip of a play activity each day to help parents with ideas for play. The ones that Lucinda has looked at seem really fun! To register email them at: hello@easypeasyapp.com

A lot of activities can be found at www.schoolgardening.rhs.org.uk This website is great and has ideas on how to make bottle waterers, mini allotments, sensory touch boxes, a pea head person, a potato bag monster and loads more. Go to this website and explore RHSCampaign for School Gardening and then go to Bring Sunshine Inside.

WHAT'S EVERYONE BEEN UP TO?

Udi and her Mum Neha clapped for the carers last night, along with a huge amount of the population. They made sure they maintained their social distancing from others too, by clapping from a window.

Udi has also been working out with Joe Wickes, trying a bit of Cosmic Yoga and practicing her handwriting skills - a really good pack is being sent home from Carolyn, which she thinks will be really useful. Watch out for 'Penpals - National Day Pack'

WHATSAPP GROUP FOR MUMS

Lots of parents have really enjoyed the daily updates which have provided the feeling of contact within our community.

As this contact may be missed over the next few weeks, Julia and some of the other mums are setting up a whatsapp group, so that you can all link up for chats.

If you are interested in joining this group, (which is not affiliated to the school in any way) other than of course you are all Mums of children at The Link, please message Julia Dawson with your name and contact numbers on [REDACTED]
