SANDY'S DAILY MESSAGE

As we head into the bank holiday weekend, I am reflecting on a post that is doing the rounds that Judy, Pine Class teacher would like to share with us.

As we await the Government's announcement on Sunday, this message is so meaningful in today's climate.

Please take time to reflect on it too and remember - It's Okay.

Have a nice weekend. If you are celebrating VE Day - enjoy your celebrations. If you are spending it quietly - enjoy that too.

Sandy

ACTIVITIES / LINKS THAT MIGHT BE HELPFUL

It's Okay - Be Kind

(shared by Judy via an online post)

As Governments are trying to figure out how to ease back in to a 'new normal' please remember:

Some people don't agree with the 'reopening'.... that's okay - Be kind.

Some people are still planning to stay at home.... that's okay - Be kind.

Some are still scared of getting the virus and a second wave happening....that's okay - Be kind.

Some are sighing with relief that they can go back to work knowing they may not lose their business or their homes....that's okay - Be kind.

Some are thankful they can finally have a surgery, medical or dental treatment that had been postponed indefinitely...that's okay - Be kind.

Some will be able to attend interviews after weeks without a job....that's okay - Be kind.

Some will wear masks for weeks....that's okay - Be kind.

Some people will rush out to get their hair or nails, eyelashes, waxing or tattoos done....that's okay - Be kind.

The point is we can have different opinions, feelings and fears and that's okay - Be kind.

We each have a different story and that's okay - Be kind .

If you need to go out just respect others and keep your distance when in public - Be kind!

Don't judge others because you are not in their story. We all are in different mental and emotional spaces than we were just a few short months ago and we are trying to adjust to our 'new reality' so remember - Be kind.

We are pleased to advise that 4 more videos have been uploaded onto the website - pupils can now access some stories from Rebecca, Gina and Catherine and there is also an opportunity to make scones with Frances.

The password to access these videos is being sent under separate cover and you are reminded that this should not be shared with anyone outside of the Link community.

WHAT'S EVERYONE BEEN UP TO?

Lily has enjoyed a more relaxed time this week with the emphasis being taken off learning. What a good idea - take a step back if things get too much.

On the family walk to the park, her and sister enjoyed making shadows.

She has also enjoyed making 'diamond pictures' and knowing how creative Lily is, we are sure the pictures were beautiful.

Lily's house is causing quite a stir locally too, as it would appear a dinosaur has moved in! Mum, Kayleigh tells us that 'Dino' is a work in progress (and very demanding of her time), but he brings a smile to the local community.

Georgia's family have been inventive. They have turned their trampoline into a clock to help learn the time. It's making learning lot of fun and Georgia is getting an expert at her 'O clocks'.

Mum, Natalie tells us that they will be busy baking cakes today for their VE Party tomorrow. She has promised to share some pictures of their 'granny biscuits' next week.

However, Georgia's favourite day of the week is always Thursday, when the family get dressed up and always make lots of noise as they clap for the carers. Don't forget to join her in clapping tonight!

And finally

An update on the fledglings in our school playground.

Today, another one flew the nest and landed bang in the middle of the playground. We believe there are four more still in situ.

Fortunately, Kevin was on hand again and as an experienced bird handler, (he breeds canaries as a hobby) with the help of some of the boys, he was able to move the baby to a safer place,

We are hopeful that again, the parents will be able to come and feed it until it is strong enough to fly away properly on it's own.

And on that wonderful note of new beginnings, we say goodbye until Monday.

Stay Well.
Stay Safe.
Stay Indoors.
